ADDENDUM NO. 1

This house was occupied by Charles Pugh from at least April, 1929 to September, 1937. It was later occupied by Lloyd Blackburn, until his retirement in 1960, but it is not known how long he was in this house. Charles Ackerman lived in the house from November, 1960 to 1967.

ADDENDUM NO. 2

McCracken (4:15 A) indicates that a "Brick Residence, Summer house, and barn" were acquired with the Kautz tract. The sketch on the preceding page, taken from a 1919 map, shows a house and three barns.

If McCracken is correct, one of the barns shown was a summer house.

This still leaves one extra barn on the sketch. Either the 1919 map or McCracken's memory was in error.
